

ST. MICHAEL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Prayer of Welcome

Holy Spirit living within us, guide our hearts and minds as we welcome today all those who worship with us at St. Michael's. Give us discerning hearts so that everyone who crosses our threshold feels welcomed in the spirit of your love. Help us to recognize each person as an individual sent by you who will enrich our lives. And most of all, O God, let this be a place of love and acceptance of all your children; in the name of your Child our Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

First Reading

Zechariah 9:9-12

Rejoice greatly, O daughter Zion!

Shout aloud, O daughter Jerusalem!

Lo, your king comes to you;

triumphant and victorious is he,

humble and riding on a donkey,

on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

He will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem;

and the battle bow shall be cut off,
and he shall command peace to the nations;
his dominion shall be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.
As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you,
I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.
Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope;
today I declare that I will restore to you double.

Psalms 145:8-15

The LORD is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and of great kindness.

The LORD is loving to everyone and his compassion is over all his works.

All your works praise you, O LORD,
and your faithful servants bless you.

They make known the glory of your kingdom
and speak of your power;

That the peoples may know of your power
and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.

Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom;
your dominion endures throughout all ages.

The LORD is faithful in all his words and merciful in all his deeds.

The LORD upholds all those who fall;
he lifts up those who are bowed down.

Gospel

Matthew 11:16-19, 25-30

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the crowd, "To what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to one another,

`We played the flute for you, and you did not dance;
we wailed, and you did not mourn.'

For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon'; the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds."

At that time Jesus said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

"Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

GOOD NEWS AT ST. MICHAEL'S ... For all the tests of patience and faith, and for all the months of worries and stress, our many hours of problem-solving have led to the extraordinary outcome of transforming a substantial adversity into a real life blessing in disguise. Over this past week, we concluded negotiations on our insurance claim and achieved a financial resolution that will cover every single cost we've incurred in response to the boiler pipe leak, including the installation of the new furnaces. That's right, we have avoided any financial impact whatsoever. And that's only part of the good news. By deciding to install furnaces instead of repairing the broken boiler pipe, we not only devised a lower cost and far less intrusive remedy to our immediate heating problem, but now have excess boiler capacity which will allow us to avoid the significant cost of buying a new boiler to replace the very old boiler used to heat the church school wing of our building, which has already exceeded its depreciation cycle. In other words, we did more than weather a severe storm together. Rather, we've actually ended up in a better financial and operational condition due to the occurrence of the problem than we were in prior to it happening. That's a rare reward and an inspiring lesson of stewardship for all of us to celebrate. Kudos to Dale Scrace and Grant Gilezan for leading our response efforts over the past 6 months and to the Rev. Marianna and Dave Zmyslowski for their countless hours of participation on our core response team.

TIMELY INFORMATION NEEDED ... We are improving our website and we need fresh information from our parish leaders and committee chairs to go with our fresh, new look. Please send any information to communications@stmichaelsgpw.org by this Thursday, July 7.
